

This letter confirms your registration in the College Baseball Coaches Camp, August 2009 at Baseball Heaven.

Please note which session you registered for. In addition, depending on enrollment, there is a chance both camps might be combined and your date moved. A decision on this will be made in the near future. Follow any camp emails to stay up to date.

Camp policies can be found at www.collegebaseballcamps.com/pioneers. Just follow signs to view details.

A few items of note...

- Most players will use aluminum, your choice if you want to use wood.
- Baseball Heaven is all turf, most wear cleats, but you could wear turfs. Only dirt area is the mound.
- You must provide your own lodging. Hotel deals can be found at www.baseballheavenli.com.
- You can bring your own food and water for camp. If not, there is a concession at the complex.
- You will be able to showcase yourself at both primary and secondary positions, however, in games, you will most likely play your primary spot. However, with three games on Day 2, there is a chance you will get some time at your secondary spot.
- The camp does not provide any refunds regardless of your reason for cancellation. No exceptions. In addition, due to Baseball Heaven schedule, it will be unlikely there will be any weather make up. We will get in as much of a the camp as we can with the weather we have. Turf fields make this much better.
- Any questions, please email Coach Mazzoni at mazzoniw@sacredheart.edu.
